

How much does the constraint move the estimates?

Both $\theta = 1$ · Book Table 4.5 · Equal-weight least squares in log correlations

Lines connect estimates for the same trait. Constrained fit imposes $m = h^2 r$, with $h^2 = m/r$.

No upper parameter bounds imposed; six constrained r estimates exceed 1. Point estimates only.